

ABOUT SAVANNAH

EDITION 1.0

S*avannah*. The word brings to mind beauty and Southern charm. On a hot summer night, this delicate camisole is perfect for an elegant night on the town. When it's cool outside, it's the camisole you can layer with a cardigan or blouse. The glamor of Savannah lies in its versatility and ease of construction.

Depending on the fabric, this garment can be worn as loungewear, activewear, or as a layering piece for all sorts of occasions. Play with colors and prints and swap out different types of lace - you will probably come up with even more uses. Savannah pairs well with the Manila leggings found in Seamwork, Issue No. 2. This cami is easy and quick to sew, even for a novice. Since it can be used in so many different settings, you will probably want to make several. And each time you make one, it gets easier and faster.

SUPPLIES All-purpose polyester thread, two yards of 1 1/2" stretch lace, two 1/4" bra rings, two 1/4" bra strap sliders, hand sewing needle, bodkin or loop turner. Optional: one yard of 1/4" lingerie elastic (to make straps if using a knit fabric).

MAIN FABRIC Nearly any lightweight fabric, such as silk crepe, silk twill, cotton shirting, lawn, voile, batiste, swiss dot. Optional: lightweight knit fabrics.
